All of our apartments have income limits. We verify the projected total annual income for everyone living in the apartment. We will ask you to produce documentation that meets the standards of our various funding contracts.

Credit Report: We require a current credit report from all tenants. You can provide this by downloading your report from <https://www.annualcreditreport.com/> The report is free and can be issued from any of the three major credit reporting agencies. There are other websites where you can access your credit report, but this is the only site approved by the Federal Trade Commission.

References: We request one reference from a landlord or an employer. If you are currently renting, please provide the address, name and contact info for the landlord. If there are issues with the current landlord, please provide similar info from a previous landlord. If this is your first-time renting, please indicate that.
